SHORE HIGH SCHOOL
EUCLID, OHIO

DEDICATION

To George Washington, the Father of His Country, upon the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of his birth, we, the Senior Classes of Shore High School do dedicate this book.

To Washington do we look as the one who, overcoming the greatest of obstacles, led his country to independence. His unwavering courage inspired those with whom he worked and fought, his wholesome common sense, his unselfish patriotism, exalted character, and patient nature made him a natural leader and organizer.

May we exemplify, in our day, these splendid traits! May we advance with courage, character and patience to some measure of service and success!

FOREWORD

Not only to remember us, the graduating classes of February and June, not only to further endear our Alma Mater to the student body, but most of all to instill a respect in the hearts of the students of Shore High School for the commemoration of the Washington Bicentennial do we present this record of the year's activities to our readers.

Washington endeavored to manage his plantation for the greatest happiness and good of his family and slaves. In like manner, our school is directed for the well being of its students.

As one looks about in our lobby, a view is afforded which is a pleasant mixture of warmth and stateliness. Immediately in front of us we see the entrance to our beautiful, new auditorium, and to the left and rear are doors leading to the other various sections of the building. In truth, the spot is the very nucleus of our school's activities.

In our modern, indoor sport arena, both boys and girls receive the physical training which is so necessary in the building of strong healthy bodies. The girls are under the supervision of Miss Albrecht while the boys are directed by Mr. Richardson, and Mr. Pohio.

Here in our modern and well-equipped laboratory, the mysteries of the elements are studied and solved. The Chemistry Department of Shore ranks with the finest in the city and features an electrical ventilation plant which purifies the air, thus dispelling all injurious fumes.

The quiet recesses of the library offer a pleasant diversion to our students who would read of adventure and mystery, and proves invaluable to those conducting research work on subjects studied in school. Books of all types are found on shelves and many periodicals can be found on the tables.

WILBERT A. FRANKS

The interesting and capable man at the head of the Euclid School system is Superintendent Wilbert A. Franks. He has efficiently devoted his time to the guidance of the destinies of the students of our school for twelve years.

DANIEL E. METTS

The principal of Shore High School who has been working to bring up-to-date equipment and the best of instruction to this school is Principal Daniel E. Metts. He has been an active power in the formation of Shore for fourteen years.

SHORE HIGH ALMA MATER
"MY TRUE SHORE HIGH"

Green is the Springtime,
White is the snowy shore,
Colors that I adore,
Of our Shore High!

Springtime may pass away,
Snow lingers but a day,
But thee I'll love for aye,
Our Shore High dear.

Dear are the mem'ries,
Golden the days of yore,
When we acquired lore
At old Shore High.

Time may bring vain regret,
Sorrows may irk and fret,
Yet thee I'll ne'er forget,
My true Shore High.

Washington divided his days into various parts in order that he might spend his time to best advantage. Subjects are likewise divided into classes that time may be most profitably spent.

GERTRUDE WAGNER—Class Vice-President 1; Class President 2, 4; Porthole Staff 2, 4; Business Manager 4; Friendship Club 4. Gertrude has been one of the most active members of her class. She has served credibly as class president and as the business head of the Porthole.

RICHARD LATOUR—Baseball 1, 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Football 2, 3, 4; Track 4; Wrestling 3, 4; Senior Play 4; Varsity "S" Club 4. Dick is one of Shore's most versatile athletes. He is also an actor, as he played his part in the Senior play very well.

GEORGE MANTEL—Dance Orchestra 2, 3, 4. Many times have we danced to the strains of George and his syncopators who donated his services for Porthole dances. We hope that some dance orchestra is waiting to receive George's services upon his graduation from Shore High.

MARGARET WEINFURTNER—Entered from Collinwood 3; Shore Breezes 4; Porthole Staff 4; Leader's Club 4. Margaret always has a smile for everyone and she has the best sense of humor. Her work on the Shore Breezes has been very commendable.

OLIVE WHITTLE—Entered from Collinwood 4. Olive is one of the tiniest girls in school so that it will always be easy for her to find someone to look up to.

AILENE WRUCK—Class Treasurer 2; Friendship Club 3, 4. A reserved and shy blonde is Ailene Wruck. Her stock in trade is pies and cakes. We wish that we could induce her to offer us some of her wares.

June Class History

IN the year 1928 A. D., 85 little Freshmen enrolled in high school. They came from Roosevelt, Noble, and Shore and maybe a few came from other schools. I wish you could have seen this timid bunch. They got their share of the "razzing," taking it without a word and wondering how the upper classmen knew they were "Freshies."

Had this been a big day for the Freshmen? Well, I should say! They chose their class officers and here were the results:

President—Kenneth Bending
Vice-President—Gertrude Wagner
Secretary—Duane Larick
Treasurer—Eunice Gilson

Another year had rolled around and this time the Freshmen were Sophomores. Did they feel big? Well, use your imagination.

Time to elect class officers again, and this time they were:

President—Gertrude Wagner
Vice-President—William Daw
Secretary—Wayne Crozier
Treasurer—Tom Schwertner

This year they all had a good time because they felt as though they were part of Shore. They were not teased but could tease others.

Then the Junior year! They were real honest-to-goodness upper classmen of Shore. The class officers for this year were:

President—Wayne Crozier
Vice-President—William Daw
Secretary—Eunice Gilson
Treasurer—Ivan Garapic

This the year of years! They, together with the other Junior class, were financing the Junior-Senior Prom! There was a lot of whispering going around and the Seniors wondered what it all was about, but the Juniors wouldn't tell. The prom was held on the stage of the new auditorium and were the Seniors surprised? The decorations were very beautiful, and all who came had a great time that unforgettable night of May 15, 1931.

It's September 8, 1931. We find the Juniors are now enrolled as sophisticated Seniors. The time has come when they can "squelch" a Freshman with one look just as was done to them when they were Freshmen.

After much thought and consideration the following class officers were chosen:

Mid-Year Class Prophecy

“GO out and get that interview of Miss Nason and have it ready for the early edition.”

As I got my first assignment since my return from China where I had been writing as correspondent of the Cleveland News (1946); I realized that my potential subject for interviewing had been a classmate of mine at Shore High, way back in '32.

Although not much interviewing had been done when I ended my visit, I knew all the news of what the other members of our class were doing, which was, in short:

Frances Vojsak had a chain of individual restaurants with the Yeip twins as general managers.

Gretchen Selwan was a talented actress on the New York stage with Iris Bundy designing all of her costumes.

Milly Root and Jerry Haven were happily married.

Fred Eliker and George Mantel jointly owned and conducted one of the best jazz orchestras in the United States.

Grace Wacker and Marjorie Sullivan were “crack” stenographers in the U. S. Senate House.

Dick Latour was a contestant in the Olympic Games and had won many events in the past seven years.

Bill Roeder was a well-known contractor with Margaret Carney as his assistant, doing interior work.

Evelyn Disanto was Caroline Peck's business partner in a large library.

Arline Haslin and John Binckley had a popular “song and dance” on the R. K. O. circuit.

Victoria Rupnik and Ed Kazmarek were on the Blue Network in the true stories serials.

Hilda Hartman had a kindergarten home and Marian Wilson, the famous artist, was designing the walls of her new nursery.

Mary Burns' name was appearing in society columns.

Mary Hartzel was a partner of a very popular dance team, appearing in Europe and America.

Ralph Fioretti was a professional football player.

Mid-Year Class History

IN far-away 1929, a group of fifty-nine enthusiastic Freshmen entered Shore. How their dignity increased as they realized that they were now “Senior High”! Back in the forgotten archives of time reposed their days in Junior High!

With eager hands they opened Latin and Algebra books. How wonderful to cast aside plain English and go around referring casually to Latin verbs and dealing with cryptic symbols familiarly called x and y! Class meetings were held—

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1932

We, the Class of 1932, being about to pass out of our extremely morose and miserable state of being into that haven of everlasting peace of solid comfort, and being of fairly sound mind, in spite of counteracting forces, do hereby make known our last will and testament, in the name of our insignificant but extremely honored underclassmen.

SECTION I

Article I. We will all of our eccentricities and bad habits to our successors that they might be used to torture their fellow men. (May they follow our example as ably as we have performed it!)

Art. II. We will to our Alma Mater a book, "Dancing Learned in Ten Easy Lessons," to be passed around at noon hour in the gym.

Art. III. We bequeath to those recently elevated but nevertheless insignificant Juniors the privileges which we have heretofore exercised to the dismay of all Freshmen, Sophomores, etc.

Art. IV. To our successors we leave the condescending air with which we have been able to receive the worship of our dear Freshmen.

SECTION II

Article I. Ivan leaves his quiet, retiring manner to Beatrice Cameron.

Art. II. Angelo Parenti bequeaths his stock of toothpicks to Gail Rutlege.

Art. III. Doris Ecclestone leaves her supply of tardy permits to Zora Stefanac.

Art. IV. Bill Mason wills about one and one-half feet of his length to Louis Benson.

Art. V. Dick Abbott leaves his alarm clock (for class use only) to Miss Boucher to keep his successor awake.

Art. VI. Edward Mason bequeaths his latest book, "How I Speak French," to Miss Cockerill to read to her classes.

Art. VII. Margaret Weinfurtner wills her giggles to Florence McCloud.

Art. VIII. George Morris wills his bashfulness to Corliss Bain.

Art. IX. Frank Davis leaves those moaning blue notes to Frank Micse.

Art. X. Tom Schwertner wills his famous waltz to Kenneth Bending.

Art. XI. Bill Daw wills that iron jaw to Ruth Cowin (that gum will provide plenty of exercise for it).

Art. XII. Bob Brockman bequeaths his golden rod corduroys to Curt Dyer.

Art. XIII. Eugene Trimman wills his beautiful marcel to Eugene Harwood.

Art. XIV. Marion Moffet leaves her playful tricks to John Korthals.

Art. XV. Joe Cerino leaves his bashfulness to Martha Plummer.

Art. XVI. Bob Burgert bequeaths his booming baritone to the next operetta hero.

FORTUNE

They had traveled that road for many a day
They were joyous at ventures well met,
They had basked in friendships prized
by all
Who prize these friendships yet.

Their burdens were borne each for the other
Their sorrows were cheered by all;
To them life was one golden dream,
No sadness for them to recall.

But see—oh sad fate—the road breaks<sup>1</sup>
apart,
Each seeks his separate way,
For they must disperse—this merry lot
To be led by fortune's ray.

They are gone—and the road trod by many
Winds forlornly over the lea,
Soon to be traveled by other steps
Sturdy, gay, carefree.

Though their paths may never cross
again
And their burdens be not the same,
Love of life, of truth, of service to man
None but the road can claim.

—MARIAN WILSON.

Band and Orchestra

SHORE'S Band, composed entirely of Senior High students, has done outstanding work during the past year. Attractive marching at the football games was appreciated by the students and added much to the spirit of the school.

The combined bands of the two high schools gave concerts at the five schools in Euclid. The band, under the direction of John F. Beck, also participated in the Gala Nite Program.

The excellent work of Miss Lola Bevington, instrumental supervisor who has charge of the Junior Orchestra and instrumental instruction, accounts greatly for the increasing numbers in Shore's Band and Orchestra.

Glee Clubs

A SPIRITED group this year harmonized nicely in four parts. They sang their Shore High tribute song at the Installation program. Several of the boys sang as soloists in the Christmas Candle Light service. They sang selections from the opera "Martha" at the January Commencement and had active parts in the annual musical show. Their director is Barbara Rehberg.

THE girls' glee club, under the direction of Barbara M. Rehberg, has been quite active in program work this year, doing three and four part choruses.

"The Childhood of Hiawatha," a cantata by Ira B. Wilson, was sung by the

Friendship Club

"To Find and Give the Best"

TWO years ago the Friendship Club of Shore High School was organized. There were 50 girls in the club that year and Miss Havens, the Junior High School Girl Reserve sponsor, resumed the position as sponsor for the Friendship Group.

This year Miss Havens was granted a leave of absence and Miss Campbell took her place.

This school year the Friendship Club has done much to live up to their pledge. They have had many social occasions as well as times which were for the purpose of giving service to others and have done much to make others happy.

The Girl Reserve says, "I still find each day too short for all the thoughts I want to think, all the walks I want to take, all the books I want to read, and all the friends I want to see."

UNDER the splendid direction of Miss Albrecht the Leaders' Club has flourished. It offers many opportunities to girls who are athletically inclined. From all gymnasium classes several members of the Leaders' Club are chosen to keep the records of attendance, uniform records and shower records. Besides this they aid in the Gymnasium Exhibitions.

Student Council

THE Student Council, composed of representatives from each home room, has held meetings every second week, at which school matters have been discussed.

Some of the achievements of this year's Council have been the forming of a social committee to introduce new students to their home rooms, the sponsoring of a service point system, the maintaining of order at the noon movies, the collection of material for a hand book to aid new students, and the continuation of the Library monitor system. In addition, the Council plans to visit and receive Student Council members from other schools.

This organization has done a great deal toward the advancement of student co-operation during 1931-1932.

In Parting

WHEN, at the end of four years in high school, one suddenly faces the day of farewell, he finds his emotions conflicting. He has a joyful feeling of victory mingled with the sadness of separation. For parting means a loss of long loved surroundings and friends. Perhaps not lost forever, but no longer daily associates. We are parted from our companions and teachers, who have been friends and advisers to us. Our friendships may live on, but our places may soon be filled by new faces.

But, too, we have a feeling of confidence and independence at reaching the end of our high school days. We are about to embark on a new adventure, whether in the pursuit of a career as a living or in the advancement of learning. Perhaps our trivial cares have seemed great to us in our small scope of life, but we have still to meet truly great responsibilities.

When we leave the institution which has for four long years been the background for our scholastic career, we leave many of our care-free happy days behind. For after having lightly disregarded the advice of our more wise advisers, that "our school days are our happiest days" we suddenly come to the realization that this is quite true.

We have not just gathered mere facts at school, but have learned how to apply our knowledge to real life and how to further our education by our reading and conversing. We have been taught to think for ourselves and from now on we must apply all of this.

As Freshmen entering Shore we were considered "green", which we truly were. Our graduation seemed a far off goal, which would be reached sometime in the indefinite future. We had few responsibilities at school and went about our work with more or less a feeling of routine.

As Sophomores we were beginning to acquire a little of the dignity expected of a high school student. But still we were mostly onlookers to the parade of activities.

Then, when we became Juniors, our pride swelled and our interest was increased by having more matters of importance placed in our hands. We were now upper classmen with some share in the activities and athletics of our school. Our graduation was now a nearby goal which we could see close at hand.

And then as Seniors, having reached the ultimate degree of sophistication, as we may have thought, we strove to uphold the standards and traditions that were customary. We have held an important part in the affairs of the school, as has each preceding class. But soon our successors will be just as ably carrying on this work. We will probably be missed at first, and we hope this is true, for to be missed brings a feeling of having been of some benefit to our friends. But soon our places will be filled and our presence will be but a dim remembrance.

Now, as we stand at the gates of the future, encouraged by the confidence of youth, we say farewell, and we hope that we will fill to our best ability the place in the world for which we are best fitted. And may we carry on the ideals and knowledge which have been instilled in us and apply them to our future lives!

Football (Continued)

ANGELO PARENTI—Necessity shifted Angelo from his fullback position to a tackle. At tackle he played above par. His punts threw Shore out of dangerous situations time after time. Even though he was the heaviest man on the squad, he was one of the fastest. He will be missed a great deal, as he will be graduated in June.

STEVE FOX—Steve was the lightest but the brainiest of the team. He played the quarterback position well. Fox passes often and punted some. Steve was also a valuable man as defense as he was fast and alert. This was his second and last year of football and will be missed by the team.

CLARENCE LAUDERBACK—Coming out at the beginning of the season with little experience but with willingness to co-operate "Claric" made good. He passed well above the average and his passes were feared by Shore's opponents. He will also be through this season.

JOE WHALEN—Whalen was one of the most versatile men on Shore's team. He could run, both plunge and skirt the ends, tackle, block, pass and kick. Joe was the main cog in Shore's defense and the punch in its offense. He has another season.

DUANE STEWART—He was the most experienced man on the team. Duane played end for his third year on Shore's team. He snagged passes, blocked, tackled, and blocked kicks well. On punts Stewart went down fast. His position will be hard to fill next season.

FRANK STRUNA—Struna was the surprise of the season. He came out for football with no experience and made good at end. He tackled hard, clean and received long passes. With the experience he received this year, Struna should improve at end next season.

DICK FINAN—At the beginning of the grid season Finan played end. He was shifted to tackle where his weight and reach helped him. His height enabled him to make many unexpected tackles. Dick, being a Junior, still has another crack at football with the Varsity.

TOM SCHWERTNER—Tom played at guard on the team, and he played it above the average. On defense Tom played low and hard. On offense Schwertner was a help to the backs through his blocking ability. Next season he will not be out for football because of graduation.

WILLIAM BYNANE—Bynane played center. His passes from center were hard and true to the spot. After he centered the ball, he always blocked his man. Bill has another year for varsity football.

IVAN GARAPIC—Ivan was a real fighter and a good sport. He played hard and well whether Shore won or lost. Whenever a few yards were needed for a first down Ivan made them. He was very good for running interference and did his share of hard tackling on defense. He will not be with the team next season, as he will be graduated this June.

RALPH FIORETTI—Whenever a play was to be executed he did his bit and did it well. This was the second season that "Lard" played with the varsity football team. Ralph tackled hard and clean, throwing his one hundred and eighty pounds in a grand fashion. His position will be hard to fill next year.

JOHN HENNING—"Museles," as he was called by his teammates was a guard. He had a bull-like charge on defense that enabled him to get through the opponents and make ground losing tackles. On offense his flying block was hard and clean. Johnning has another year of football with the team.

Basketball (Continued)

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Our varsity won the Championship of the Eastern Conferences for the first time that any Shore athletic team has ever been an undisputed champion.

Coach Case and Assistant Coach Richardson produced a powerful and fast organization which played smart basketball all season and rolled up points with regularity against all opposition. The defense was varied and cleverly played and won many games by being manipulated successfully against certain attacks.

Dick Abbott and Steve Fox were the captains appointed before games and showed a type of leadership and sportsmanship which was a credit to all. Bob Clarke, Herb Wohlgemuth, Art Brown, Joe Whalen, Chuck Wick, and Girard Montana are lettermen left over for next year. The "B" team leaves such prospects as Melvin Riebe, Cedric Koons, Rene Tousley, and Dick Weinschreider as very capable performers.

Individual scoring in E. C. games: Abbott 70, Whalen 50, Brown 39, Fox 38. Dick Abbott led the entire league in points scored.

"B" BASKETBALL TEAM WIN TITLE

At the beginning of the year Davis, Garapic, Riebe, Koons, Tiffany, Wilkomm, Tousley, Lucas, Hill, Palko and Cameron reported for basketball. Coach Richardson drilled them in fundamentals which they soon perfected. They played their first game and won it by their teamwork. They then defeated Euclid Central, Shaker Heights, Brush, Bedford, and Maple Heights in great fashion. Then they began their second leg of the conference and lost but to Maple Heights. They won the cup of the Eastern Conference. The lettermen were Riebe, Garapic, Tiffany, Wilkomm, Koons, and Davis. Riebe was high point man.

SHORE WRESTLERS RATE HIGH

The Wrestlers ended their most successful season by getting four medals in the Greater Cleveland Conference Tournament. Captain Willie Whalen won his twenty-third straight victory and was crowned City Champion for his second consecutive year, while his brother Joe Whalen became the 155-pound City Champion after twelve consecutive victories. Joe Hohl and William Fox were runners-up in their classes and were awarded silver medals, while Don Dixon took third place in the 130 pound class. In the regular season Shore piled up 282½ points to their opponents 156½ points. In eleven meets, Shore won six, tied one and lost four. The whole team will return to school next year. Below is a summary of the meets:

Shore 9½	J. Hay	28½
" 21	West	26
" 29	Garfield	9
" 44½	Painesville	1½
" 26	Mansfield	11
" 19	West Tech	24
" 32	Univ. School	10
" 9	Marshall	18
" 42½	Harvey	1½
" 20	Central	11
" 21	South	21

The Tournament standing was as follows:

J. Hay	21
J. Marshall	19
Shore	17
W. Tech	9
West	7
U. S.	4
South	4
E. Central	2

Track

Track appears as a most prosperous sport for Shore. Most of the lettermen are back from last year's outfit which lost the runner-up cup by one-fourth of a point. They are: Clarke, Daw, Wall, Whalen, Garapic, Conrad, H. Davis, Habrle and F. Davis. With these boys back, more experienced and seasoned in track, and a few other prospects which include Andrews, Nosse, Tousley and others, this coming track season looms as a highlight in this field of activity. This year there will be dual meets with Shaw, Shaker, Brush and a triangular meet with Shaw and another city school. If all the boys show up better than they did last year at the conference meet, Shore will finish higher in the Eastern Conference Annual Meet, which will be held at the new Shaker Stadium.

Baseball

THIS year H. C. Richardson will begin his baseball club around the nucleus of five of last season's letter men, Fox, Whalen, Wohlgemuth, Lauderback, and Brown. When Richardson called baseball players to report he received besides these lettermen a few able recruits. They will play Brush, Bedford and Euclid Central this year. Shaker and Maple Heights have dropped out for this season. Of the lettermen Whalen will catch, Fox and Wohlgemuth pitch, Lauderback will play the infield and Brown the outfield.

group during the autumn on an attractively set stage, while the Junior High students pantomimed the story.

As is customary the girls sang at the Student Council Installation program in October and again at another traditional candle light service for the Community Club at its annual Christmas party. There they did "The Child Jesus," a cantata by Clokey.

They all took part in the spring musical show and sang in combination with the boys' club at the January commencement.

June Class History (Continued)

President—Gertrude Wagner
Vice-President—Virginia Gent
Secretary—Eunice Gilson
Treasurer—Ivan Garapic

The class introduced a standard school ring, which everyone thought was a good idea.

The gay and grand time of getting one's picture taken for graduation! The Senior Play! Everyone excited!

The Senior Banquet! That's the last gathering of the class until after graduation when they become Alumni.

A lovely June night and it's graduation time! The girls all dressed in white with their lovely bouquets of flowers; the boys in their new suits! The Valedictorian and the Salutatorian must have been proud to have been able to give speeches on graduation night.

The four happy years are over. Each one goes his own way, either to success or otherwise. All of them will look back in later years and remember the happy times they had together.

OUR DVERTISERS . .

Three cheers for our advertisers!

To them our praise is due;
No ads would mean no annual,
A thing we all would rue.

So readers, you owe a lot to them,
And here's how you can pay,
Acquaint yourself with each one's ad,
And call on them someday.

Son in college was applying pressure for money from home. "I cannot understand why you call yourself a kind father," he wrote, "when you haven't sent me a check in three weeks. What kind of kindness do you call that?"

The father replied: "Dear son—That's unremitting kindness."

A golf professional, hired by a big department store to give golf lessons, was approached by two women. "Do you wish to learn to play golf, madam?" he asked one.

"Oh, no," she said, "it's my friend who wants to learn. I learned yesterday."

Mid-Year Class History (Continued)

Miss Williams was chosen sponsor. Gradually, members of the class entered various school activities.

Second year came. With it came the reign of masculine class officers. Not a girl was elected to office. Nobody knows why.

Junior year saw members of the class entering all fields of activity around the school. In basketball were Captain Ruth Nason and Gretchen Schwan. In football were Dick LaTour and Ralph Fioretti. As cheer leader came the gallant John Binckley. Glee Club Girls were Marjorie Sullivan, Caroline Peck, Arline Haslin, Mary Hartzel, Gretchen Schwan, and Mildred Root. The Boys' Glee Club numbered Fred Elicker and John Binckley among its members. Artists included Marian Wilson who was also Porthole Editor. Betty Fish was the president of the Student Council and a member of the Shore Breezes Staff. Other members contributed to Shore Life along various lines. Miss Williams' advice and energy as a Senior sponsor were greatly appreciated.

The Mid-Year Class of 1932 hopes to carry Shore's spirit and tradition into its life after graduation days have long since passed.

Orchestra (Continued)

THE Orchestra at Shore this year is the largest in the history of Shore school. It has played all kinds of music from the popular to the classics. Mr. Beck, the conductor, feels very proud of it and thinks the school should be happy to have such an organization.

The instrumentation of the orchestra is: fifteen violins, cello, piano, four clarinets, oboe, flute, four saxophones, two trumpets, alto horn, trombone, baritone and tuba.
